DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

1846 - West side of Philadelphia Road, south bank of Great Gunpowder Falls, about 100 yards west of road, northwest of tavern. This hot-blast charcoal-fired iron furnace was put up on the Nottingham Forge-Ridgley Furnace site after the Robert Howard enterprise was sold to Great Falls Iron Company in 1845. This ruinous stack about 100 yards west of the road was once 31 feet high and 8 feet across at the bosh. Michael Robbins also reported ruins of an engine installation.
